CULTURED

“The Twenty Five,” Cultured Magazine, Winter 2016, pp. 119

In November, San Francisco-based gallery Altman Siegel opened the door to its new space in the city's Dogpatch neighborhood with a group show featuring the gallery's complete roster, from Sara VanDerBeek to Trevor Paglen. Next up in January, Laeh Glenn will present new large-scale paintings and sculptures that further the artist's interest in genre by addressing the traditions and tropes of painting.
